Gain in Mineral Values In 1915 Put at $13,000.000

Extraordinary production of copper $2.850,000 pounds, was chiefly responsible for the $13,000,000 gain in mineral values in the United States during the passed year, according to the Geological Survey. The aggregate value of minerals mined in this country in 1915 was $320,000,000, which was $9,000,000 better than any previous year in the country's his-tory. Copper was worth $83,000,000 more than last year, while iron productions gained $85,000,000 and gold production of Most Remarkable Meetings in Baltimore's History.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 3 .- As the outcome of two of the most remarkable meetings ever recorded in the history of Baltimore, a total estimated at between $50,000 and $60,000 was given within an hour last night by Hebrew residents to old their war-stricken co-religionists in Curone

The meetings were held at the Hippodrome and Palace, the last named bains an overflow gathering. Both theaters were packed to capacity, and the police turned away from the doors probably 1,000 more persons.

The larger meeting, at which the bulk of the money was given, was that at the Hippodrome, which held its audience until midnight, while a score or more tellers and accountants, labored at counting the money, checks, and pledges that were poured upon the stage in pasketfuls.

Among the many contributors were Joseph Castelberg, $1,000: Emanuel Alexander and Moses Hecht. $1,000; Julius and Levi Coldenberg, $1,000, and Moses Goldenberg, $500.

An enthusiasm that was indescribable and of the permeated both assemblages, and of the 5,000 or more persons who packed the two theaters hardly a man or woman two theaters hardly a man or woman failed to respond liberally to the impassioned appeals of the speakers that the Hebrew people be saved from the most terrible persecution in the race's history. Those who had bank accounts sent forward checks or piedges; others appeting their people's senting pursues. emptied their pockets, sending purses and all: girls stripped rings from their fingers and bracelets from their arms, to be converted into cash. Watches, lockets, stickpins, and other pieces of jewelry were included in the offerings.

Newsboy Gives Pin.

One newsboy sent to Dr. Harry Friedenwald, chairman of the Baltimore branch of the committee, a stickpin which he had plucked from his frayed necktie. The pin had been a gift to him. With the pin went to the platform a note saving that the donor felt himself too razged to come forward, but had given all he could.

A Canadian $2 bill brought $67 when raffied off at the overflow meeting held at the Palace.

The Canadian bill was found in one of the basket collections, and when the aunouncement was made from the stage that the dependence of the basket collections. aunouncement was made from the stage that it had been received a man in the audience arose and said he would give $1 for it. He started for the stake with pocketbook in hand when some one shouted that he would give $3. Others cried out $5. $5. $7. and finally it was sold for $10.

Bill Resold Many Times.

The purchaser was called to the stage. and, after handing over the $10, returned the Canadian bill. It was placed on sale again, and the same man bid it in at 39. He returned it a second time and it was kept on sale until offers ceased. One man who had won it for $2 and returned it again, bid $10 a second time and ran from the rear of the house to the stage and back. At one time it was offered there was a strong commetting the stage and back. At one tide it was offered there was a strong competition between the first floor and the gallery. The gallery won.
